The first 2 weeks of 2010 will be both trying and compelling. A unique energy is cascading the planet with the Quadrantids Meteor Shower occurring on January 3rd to further heighten the cocktail of intense energies. A fractal energy occurs that can in essence be like taking one step backward before taking two steps forward, yet within is a great opportunity. Well to place the focus on the two steps forward, as indeed this can be a time well utilized."

AA Metatron Channel: The Alchemy of 2010

Archangel Metatron via James Tyberonn

"Greetings Masters,

I am Metatron Lord of Light, and I greet one and all in a vector of unique spacial energy, imbued with unconditional Love. And so we gather to speak of the coming year, of the energies new and old, great and greater as we approach with you the heralded Ascension.

Masters, 2010 will be a powerful year, a year of great unfolding, a mile-marker yet closer to the Galactic Centering of the Ascension. The year of 2010 has within it some extraordinary Gateways, and these should be utilized, must be entered. We bid you to focus attention to the junctures and potentials of your life's pathway to greater extent than you already have.

You see, the graduation you have worked toward and waited many many lifetimes to participate within is here now. Truly you are in the final 3 years of a 26,000 year cycle toward Galactic Centering. The 3 years that remain until 2012 is but a tiny fraction .00011 of the 26,000 year cycle. The Ascension in many ways, is indeed happening Now.

So as you enter 2010, use wisdom as to how & with whom you interact. Raise your frequency by being even more open to new potentials. Judge not your experiences nor that of others, for all are experiencing the trail and error growth toward the Crystalline Vibration of Impeccability.

Masters, understand that it is imperative to be fully present, fully in the 'NOW' , well grounded on the Earthplane, as you seek to rise in vibration and dimension. This is especially true during the ongoing retrograde phases of the planets Mercury, Mars and Saturn. Place your full focus, full attention in each moment and not elsewhere so that you do not miss what you have longed to experience. Follow the example of your planet Earth, and cleanse and purge what no longer serves a purpose in your life.

Utilize the extraordinary gateways occurring on the Equinoxes, Solstices, Triple Date Portals, Eclipses and alignments. The eclipse of Dec 31 and the eclipse of Jan 15 are coded with enormous energies cascading the Earth. What awaits you in the first 2 weeks of 2010 is the completion of the Triad Stargates of 2009. The period to go inward and resolve. Yet it is a coin of two sides, and indeed these energies will be among the most opportune and yet difficult of the year for many.

Experience these eclipsical gates in solitude. Share the Equinoxes, Solstices and Triple Stargates in group. Discover like minded seekers, kindred spirits on the path who are devotedly prepared to take the next step in discovery. Then do so in group, for there is exponentially more force in unity than in separateness. We acknowledge and honor this special communication and assay.

And so how may we assist you further this auspicious day, Dear One.

Question to Metatron: Can you describe the effects of the Mercury Retrograde, Full Moon Eclipse, and Solar Eclipse occurring between Dec 31 and January 15th?

AA Metatron: Indeed, but we have a special Beloved Guest present to address this most pertinent topic, that of the energies of 2010. For to optimally deal with the unique complexities of the coming energies, the energies of the Violet Flame are quite conducive, quite complimentary for navigating the energies that are cascading the planet at this time.

We have the presence and Divine Master of the Violet Ray, the Beloved Sainte Germain. Indeed Sainte Germain is the Earth-Guardian of the Aquarian Age, as Jeshua ben Joseph was the Earth-Guardian of the Piscean Age. Sainte Germain has had recent of sojourns on your planet, and as Comte de Sainte Germain, mastered the Art & Sciences of that termed Astronomy, Astrology, and Alchemy. All of these subject matters are Metatronic in nature & frequency, you see. And although he is of the Family of Archangel Michael, his studies in the science of Astrology is Metatronic.

We adjust the energy and create the entry vector in kind.
(Pause)

Sainte Germain: I bid fondest salutations ! I AM that I AM. And I am an honored guardian of service to the Earth & Humanity in this Age! Indeed before the Earth was formed I walked with all of you. Each of you is known to my soul, by heart and by name, in all of your facets and lifetimes. You are known to my soul, for we have dreamed the dream of the Ascending Earth, together of this time, throughout time. You are, indeed Beloved, unto I, unto Creator God, unto all of us of the Cosmic Council of Light.

I stand before you now as special envoy of the Ascension within that called the Aquarian Age.

And so again, I embrace each of you in joy & fondest Salute!

I am what you may think of as a 'modern' Ascended Master, closely connected to many of you. Indeed I walked several lifetimes with the channel, and in many sojourns, studied I, the Science of the Stars. And the science and art of Astrology is the knowledge of space and time. Perfectly scored to accommodate every intrinsic autonomous form, the Law of Time is supreme in its creative power to make all movement and measure into art with the brush & paint of exquisite gateways imbedded in the canvas, the fabric and tapestry of linear movement you call time.

Know Ye, that your physical reality is mass/energy embedded in its space-time matrix continuum in a matrix of or double duality, duality within polarity. Thus the resonant harmonics of one inertial reality is induced into the electro-magnetic context of all subsequent space/time holograms through unique frequencial gravity waves and geometric (Metatronic) light codes formed & projected by all Celestial bodies. Thus does the Alchemical Science of Astronomy/Astrology affect the Earth and Mankind.

Now, I shift into more understandable terminology & vernacular as I speak to your specific inquiry.

The first 2 weeks of 2010 will be difficult, yet compelling.

So fasten your etheric seat belts everyone, and hold on tight! Mars & Mercury just joined Saturn in retrograde, there is a full moon lunar eclipse on Dec 31st, 2009 and a new moon solar eclipse on January 15th.

The first 2 weeks of 2010 will be both trying and compelling. A unique energy is cascading the planet with the Quadrantids Meteor Shower occurring on January 3rd to further heighten the cocktail of intense energies. Solarwinds from increased activity in sunspots are adding to a fractal energy occurrence in this extremely potent phase. It can in essence feel like taking one step backward before taking two steps forward, yet within this 'Quinfecta' is a great opportunity for realization. It is a crucible of magnanimous proportion. So Masters, it is well to place the focus on the two steps forward, as indeed this trying phase can also be a powerful cleansing tool if well utilized.

But take note ! Unguarded, this can be a time of weary lassitude. Indeed, as the exalted Lord Metatron has told you, the mass of humanity expends more energy during the months of December and January than they receive, and this oft result in a post holiday lull of diminished vitality and depression.

During the period of which you speak Saturn is also retrograde, adding to the intensity. Saturn then governing in this time, life purpose influenced by the Cancerian and Capricornian aspect & energies.

You may then be surprised that I tell you, the trifecta of Mercury, Saturn, Mars Retrograde, combined with the Full Moon Lunar Eclipse and New Moon-Solar Eclipse are the perfect complement to the advent of the Triad Stargates, that of the double date 11-11, 12-12 and 12-21 Solstice of 2009. The Triad Stargates were the crucible, the bubbling up and surfacing of hidden obstacles, blockages that impede your growth into the Crystalline vibration of 'Impeccability'. And this will come full circle in the first 2 weeks of 2010. Time to get on the wagon or be left behind! For all is quickening in the 'crucible' of the Quintfecta.

And so we see that the Full Moon's lunar eclipse is within the influence of Cancer & Capricorn. It is then the axial integration of heart/home with 3d-world, and requires/offers the tedious balancing of the two. When eclipses fall in Cancer and Capricorn one faces a need to find equilibrium. It becomes an amplified crucible, a crisis in direction. Yet each eclipse has an effect not measured in pure astrological gravities, each then is unique and influenced by the flux of the human evolvment at the time, you see. Tailored then to the need of both Earth & Humanity within the linear time continuance, the Quintfecta will be a time of 'double-edge' that for many will be somewhat anxious, contentious and lethargic. Yet also provide opportunity for further inward resolve.

The Mercury retrograde in tandem with the 2 eclipses is a 'Quintfecta' of gravities that brings a 'Rubik's Cube' of juxtaposed issues that were brought to the forefront in the Triad Stargates, and enables them to be deeply reviewed and resolved. The New Moon Solar Eclipse on January 15th is extremely potent for the enactment of the new resolutions.

Global traditions of forming resolutions for the New Year are particularly enabled and powerful with the retrogrades & amplifying eclipse energies. Does this assist you?

Question to Sainte Germain: Yes, & thank you for being here! It is an honor. May I request that you expand on the optimal use of the 'Quintfecta' as described?

Sainte Germain: Indeed, Beloved Friend, the honor is once and always mine. And know that I am always here, as part of the entourage of Ascended Masters and the Cosmic Council of Light, I am somewhat nearer to the Earthplane than the Archangels of High. We were with you in the June Solstice Gathering in our retreat in the Grand Tetons, and rejoin you gleefully & purposefully at this moment.

So, onward to your inquiry. First and foremost, do not allow the self to fall into the negative aspects of the fractal energies created within the retrogrades, for all is amplified by the full lunar eclipse, meterr showers and solar winds.

Guard the thoughts and emotions. Avoid arguments and entangling the energies in the downward spiral of worry or depression that so often occur in the post holiday season. Avoid mental lethargy. Work at being positive and keep the auric field intact. The Mars retrograde can and will affect the irritability of humans during January. Tempers can flare, and Mercury leads to further miscommunication. Walk on eggshells! Induce within and without the Violet Ray, the Violet Flame.

The energies of this period will undeniably compel introspection. Utilize this, but not in self condemnation, rather in seeking the recalibration of brighter light through the very electromagnetic induction of the Cancerian-Capricornian gravities.

And so with the Cancerian and Capricornian over-wave, these questions will come to many. Are you where you need to be in terms of abundance and sustenance? Are your 3d-world ambitions in alignment with the highest goals of Spirit? Are you 'Walking Your Talk'? The balance of these issues is a puzzle that each human must resolve.

So many with past lives in the 'cloth' are unable to find the grounding necessary in 3d jobs to manifest the paradigm of sustenance. Manna doesn't fall from heaven in the Ascending Earth, you are required to create in a manner that meets all the needs of your earthly sojourn. And YOU must make this happen, by action. Your abundance will not fall from the sky as in old belief systems.

Yet to manifest, you must be electro-magnetically intact, aurically whole, for you must expand to Crystalline MerKiVa. And listen carefully ! In expanding and reaching higher to greater dimensional realms, you must retain the connection to all dimensions, including the first three! So many in metaphysics forget the requirement to remain grounded. Mastering the third dimension is a big part of your growth, and that cannot be achieved through abandoning 3d, for the dimension of three is the very dimension you are required to Master before moving higher.

There are as always the generalized conditions well understood within Mercury Retrogrades. As understood communications misconstrued, travel can be affected. Mankind can feel lethargic and irritable. Mental apathy can lead to inattentiveness and automobile accidents occur when focus is diminished. Attention, patience and caution are the rule! Tread softly in communication, and use patience in travel. Spend time in contemplation.

Indeed the very density of the energies during the Five Primary Gravities of Influence that can create profound contemplation can also lead to brooding. Soul searching is the better way. So you see there is a Method to the Madness, a light at the end of the tunnel! And so to answer in summary the question of optimal use, the Dec 31-Jan 15 Quintecta (I have coined a new term !) should be utilized for inner examination, indeed with concerted effort you will go deeper during the periods of Mercury and Saturn retrograde within the amplifications of the eclipses than you may imagine. The energies are in fact conducive to introversion. Utilize the Full Moon Lunar Eclipse (December 31st) for examination, and the Solar Eclipse on the New Moon (January 15th) to commit to your resolves.

Does this answer your question?

Question to Sainte Germain: Yes, thank you. Can you describe briefly the major dates and portals of 2010?

Sainte Germain: The Equinoxes, Solstices, Eclipses, Triple Date Portal of 10-10-10, specific to 2010. In every year the moon aspects of full moon, new moon, understanding of the utilization of waxing and waning lunar cycles. The March 20 Equinox, the 10-10-10 and the Full Moon Eclipse on the December 21st Solstice are the three most potent. The total solar eclipse on July 11th, and the Equinox of 22 September also offer powerful stargates. The 12-12 of December combined with the 12-21 will be extremely potent as well.

Understanding of planetary movement and alignments occurring in June and July. On June 13, 2010, Uranus, Jupiter, and Mercury will be lined up on one side of the Sun while Venus, Mars, and Saturn will be lined up on the other side. Earth will be perpendicular to the Sun at this time.

This is paired with a very significant planetary configuration, as an exact aspect in the forth week of July. The quadrature alignment of the moon and five planets, with other significant factors in hard aspect, indicate a transformational crisis of the collective consciousness playing out dramatically on a global scale. It will not be an easy summer, yet much can be released and initially steps taken to bring a resolve to Global conflict on a macro scale. Yet the drama is somewhat redirected though the Total Solar Eclipse of July 11 which offers some reprieve.

From the September Equinox thru the 10-10-10 there will be high solar activity with the alignment of Jupiter and Saturn. That means a probability of solarwinds sweeping the planet and geomagnetic storms.

And so I, Sainte Germain I stand with my brothers and sisters of humanity, in the sincere desire to bring understanding to a world that has forgotten its role. The astrological influences of 2010 will indeed help you to remember why you are here, albeit one heart at a time. We call upon your soul to remember, and trust in highest good. In loving compassion we implore & invite each of you to move beyond this dramatic illusion and own your Divine Inheritance, and to do so with feet firmly grounded on the beloved Earth. Perhaps this sounds paradoxical, yet it is the way of Mastery. I hope from my heart of hearts that I have been of service. I plea that you 'Invoke the Violet Flame', and realize the opportunity and beauty of this graduation of the Ascension. It is a point in eternal time that we have longed for, and created! It will occur. And so I return the podium to the energy of the Beloved Lord Metatron, and bow in grace.

I Am that I Am, and so it will be! I am Sainte Germain, ever at your service and call.

AAMetatron: Dear Ones, as you remember the Divine Truth of who you are, you will change your inner world and then the outer World. You are beautiful, magnificent children of light. The corruption and conflict that you see are illusions, yet their purpose in duality has been a great teacher. Cause and Effect is a doctor that still makes house calls! And as the 'Old Guard' of control, fear and nay-sayers burst in and out in their final death throes, know that this old tired energy must soon exit the stage. And so in final word of the 'Quintflecta', Equinoxes, Triple Stargate, Eclipses and Solstices, we say to you: Use this time to truly and deeply explore your heart. Find out what you need to release, resolve & manifest in mind, spirit, body and Consciousness to physically & spiritually live a more joyful and impeccable life in alignment with your soul. Make your intent clear and create it. This is the year of the Crystalline MerKiVa and offers great leaps in completion.

I am Metatron, and I share with you these Truths. You are Beloved

... And so it is.
