MILE HIGH FANTASY

BY

MARY SUZANNE

The night before, Jesse and Jake McDermott sat in their living room talking about their marriage. Jesse began expressing her need for some excitement in her life and set out to convince Jake that they should try something new to add spice to their relationship.

"You're going to have to explain exactly what you want." Jake's gaze narrowed as he looked at her.

"I thought I'd go with you to make the delivery tomorrow," she explained "This is just a suggestion and you may not agree to it, but here goes. Once we're in the air, we can seduce the co-pilot Carter Wilson. I don't want Carter to know that we're married. Since we'll be the only people on the plane, it shouldn't be hard to carry out our plan."

Shock raced through Jake realizing that Jesse wasn't satisfied. He didn't know where he had failed her, but if he wanted to keep their marriage solid, he would have to go along with her suggestion. This would be the hardest thing he ever had to do, but she left him little choice. Jake composed his features and gave her a calm look before speaking, although his insides felt all worked up.

“You’re right. We’re going to have to pretend that we don’t know each other,” he finally spoke. “I wouldn’t want word to get out about what we’ve been up to at the airport. We’d both lose our jobs.”

“I’m all for it,” she murmured. “So, you’re in agreement?”

Jake felt trapped, but there was nothing else he could do but go along with her. He loved her too much to lose her. “This is a one shot deal, Jesse,” Jake eventually told her. “I’ll go along with your plan this time but there won’t be a repeat. You’ll just have to keep your mile high fantasy locked away in your memories to last you.” He hoped she’d go along with what he wanted. Jake held his breath waiting for her answer.

“I promise,” she told him as she moved between his legs on the floor and began unzipping his slacks. Her mouth quickly closed over his cock.

“You always have a way of convincing me,” he murmured raggedly, feeling the sensations she caused to flow through him. He knew right then that he would do anything for her.

While walking toward the plane, Jesse thought of last night. A vivid picture of what had taken place between them ran through her mind. She'd felt so excited over Jake going along with her plan that she unzipped his slacks and gave him a blow job that made him groan out with pleasure. All the while she held his penis in her mouth her thoughts were on the following night and what was going to take place. The anticipation flowed through her rapidly.

She couldn't tell Jake, but she'd always wanted to feel another cock in her pussy. Jesse had found this feeling almost haunting her day and night. She loved Jake, but she just needed to keep herself content and the only way she knew was to have this experience to look back on. Maybe she'd find a way to ease this unrest that had been plaguing her for some time now.

Now here she was almost ready to start the journey of a lifetime. So far, Jesse's plan worked in keeping their identity a secret from Carter. They knew his name, but had only met him that morning and introduced themselves to him. The only difference in the introductions was Jesse's. She managed to slip her maiden name in for her married name. Carter arrived in Dallas that morning from another terminal to take the place of an absent pilot.

As the three walked through the airport Jesse turned her head and her gaze took in her two companions. Jake was thirty-two and Carter his co-pilot was still in his twenties.

Earlier, when Jesse saw Carter walking toward them, she felt her legs get wobbly at how sexy he looked. Soon, if she was lucky, she'd have this man between her legs doing things to her that could cause explosive climaxes in her. It looked as if she attracted his attention already. She didn't miss how he watched every step she took and how she swung her hips as she walked.

Jesse again thought how both men looked like excellent specimens to anyone observing the trio. Both were ruggedly handsome in a tough sort of way. She couldn't have asked for a more handsome looking man to join them than Carter Wilson.

Jesse caught her image in the plate glass window they were passing. She also got her fair share of stares from men they were passing in the long corridor. She was medium in height with long auburn hair and in her early twenties. Jesse had the figure that would knock any man's eyes out.

Until recently she had been happy, but lately she found that something was missing in her life. She didn't know if her problem in feeling satisfied was from the lack of excitement or something else. Soon, she planned to remedy the situation. Carter Wilson was the solution she was looking for.

It didn't take them long to board and get strapped in. Jake and Carter walked to the front of the plane and Jesse found herself alone in the back. She could hear the droning voice of the tower giving the plane clearance for takeoff. If only the tower knew what was going to take place in their plane in the next hour or so there would be hell to pay. If Jesse had anything to do with it there would be plenty of hot sex and fucking going on right under their noses.

From her vantage point, she could see the wide shoulders of Jake and Carter as they worked the instruments up front. Occasionally, she heard short burst of laughter coming from them and she wondered what they were talking about. Hopefully, Jake was warming Carter up for their planned seduction.

While they lifted into the air, Jesse decided this was the day she intended to do something about her doldrums in the sex department. She silently wondered how long it was going to be before Jake put in an appearance from the cockpit. The longer she waited, the more excited Jesse felt about what was to happen.

The soft music filtering out from the intercom almost blocked out the low drone of the plane's engine. Thoughts kept racing through her mind over what she had to look forward to. She could feel the wet coating her pussy just thinking about the thrilling ride she was just about to take.

When she saw movement at the front of the plane, Jesse glanced up and watched Jake unbuckling and leaving his chair. He began walking toward her. Her gaze drank in the handsome hunk she was married to. She had always been a sucker for a uniform and looking at Jake, now was no different.

After Jake had come through the door to join her, he had left it slightly cracked so that anyone sitting up front could see what was going on in the back of the plane. This had been her plan and he followed every thing they talked about earlier.

Jesse said a silent thank you that this special delivery only required three people on the plane. Since it was the weekend, most of pilots had the two days off, but Jake volunteered to make the run. They were hauling a shipment of supplies to an industrial firm located some distance from where their flight originated in Dallas. Jake had told her the flight should take about four hours to reach their destination. She figured this was plenty of time to implement her plan. By the time they fucked for a few hours, she would have surely found the satisfaction she craved.

As Jake got within a few feet of her, Jesse raised her head and drank in the muscular sight of him once again. The uniform wasn't required on a non-passenger flight, but Jesse knew that Jake was never caught without it no matter where they were headed.

She continued to examine him as if she didn't know him very well. From the corner of her eye, she could see the intense interest of the co-pilot Carter Wilson as he turned his head at an angle so that he could watch everything that happened in the back. By the look on Carter's face, he didn't suspect that they were actually husband and wife.

Jesse brought her attention back to Jake now standing only inches from her. Just looking at him could still bring a flutter to her chest and she silently wondered why she had these thoughts about not being satisfied. She dismissed her wayward thinking and concentrated on Jake again.

Wide shoulders, narrowing down to a slim waistline and hips, were topped off by thick black hair and sharp black eyes. Those same black eyes were doing an inventory of her, as well. Who could ask for anything more in a man like Jake? But again, she put the thoughts to the back of her mind. Tonight was her special night.

Jesse hadn't worn her uniform that day opting to wear a tight fitting knee high skirt and a halter top that barely covered her large breasts which were ready to spill out if she moved in the wrong direction too fast. She had decided against wearing any panties and bra loving the freedom this outfit offered her. She also knew it would be less troublesome to only have to remove her skirt and top when the time came. While walking through the airport parking lot earlier, there were several times when she had to put her hand on her skirt to keep the wind from blowing it up around her hips. She smiled inwardly wondering what her stodgy boss would think if he had gotten a glimpse of her delicate pussy. She dismissed her wandering thoughts and concentrated on Jake.

Her legs were spread slightly and anyone looking could see up to where her mound of hair began. Again, her coveted look took in Carter. His eyes were narrowed and a glazed look began spreading across his features as he gazed up her skirt at the clitoris exposed for his viewing. There was an animal look of desire blazing from his half lidded eyes that Jesse didn't miss. She silently felt that her plan was working.

She noticed Jake's intense interest as his gaze dropped to just below her waistline. There wasn't a doubt in her mind that what he saw pleased him. It didn't take Jesse long to spread her legs just a little more giving him and also Carter a wider view of her pink pussy beneath the black skirt

"How are things back here?" Jake asked, stopping near her seat and slowly unzipping his khaki colored pants and pulling his penis out, playing along with her little game. His pretense that they were strangers excited her even more in the next few seconds. "Are you getting lonely?" Jake made sure he talked loud enough so that his voice carried to the front of the plane.

"What do you think you're doing?" She asked the question trying to sound shocked. Her gaze dropped down and devoured every inch of his peter jutting out of his pants. Again, when she looked at Carter, she could see that he was mesmerized by the scene.

"I'm going to show you what I'm going to be doing in a few seconds," he told her. "I'm not going to disappoint you either." Jake moved closer and reached for her head clasping it between his hands. It didn't take him long to plant his penis into her soft mouth although she hadn't given him any sign that she meant to suck him off.

Jesse reached up and pushed her long auburn hair behind her ears to keep it out of the way while she ate him. Her hands moved to his hips and she clasped them as he started to move inside her mouth.

The soft thrusts of his hard cock filled her throat to overflowing. There was such a pleasurable sensation filling her that she felt even more wetness coat her pussy in the next instant. As she again tried to catch a look at Carter, she saw that his face was lined with a look of desire.

This spurred her on with her little show. Jesse didn't make any objection when Jake increased the tempo and began moving his penis in and out with swift movements. She could feel the juice almost flowing from her in her excited state.

Her tongue slid across his cock and eventually found the opening where small amounts of pre-come filled the small crevice. She licked it away with her tongue in an upward sweep loving the taste as it coated her mouth. She couldn't get enough of the come and decided to let him fill her mouth with the sweet white fluid. But, he wasn't ready yet as he began pumping faster. She could feel the shudder passing through his legs as he shook with the effort of holding back from exploding in her mouth.

It didn't look as if he was having much success in controlling his emotions because it felt like he was ready to ejaculate. She heard a moan coming from Jake as the tempo of his dick increased to a faster rate. It didn't take him long after this to reach a climax. She felt the explosion in her mouth as the fluid trickled down her throat. She swallowed the thick come greedily and felt the need for Jake to give her pussy a little attention now that she had brought him pleasure.

Getting up from her seat, Jesse gave almost a theatrical exhibition for anyone watching. She began slowly by slipping out of her skirt and removing her halter top before throwing them to the side on the seat near her. But her halter top didn't reach the padded seat. While she did her strip tease she took her time posing her delicate curves in the muted light of the cabin. When she noticed the halter top lying on the floor, she again took her time about bending over to pick it up. In doing this, her pussy was exposed for anyone wanting to see.

She peeked between her legs while leaning over and could see Carter's arm moving back and forth with hurried strokes. There wasn't a doubt in her mind that he jacked off as he watched them. When she rose and sat back down, she spread her legs ready for what was to come from Jake.

He didn't hurry as he slowly began removing his clothing. First came his shirt and her gaze again devoured the muscled chest revealed to her. Next came the khaki pants, but he wasn't wearing anything beneath the pants. He, too, had left his briefs at home only wanting to be able to undress quickly. His dick hadn't gone down yet and still looked curved up ready to give her a good fuck. He picked up his clothing and placed them on the seat next to hers.

Jesse could feel the excitement pumping through her as she waited for Jake to take care of her needs. He got down on the carpeted floor on his knees and pushed her legs apart, his hands remaining for a short time on her soft inner thighs. The sweet smell of her pussy came rushing up to him and he breathed deeply of the aroma. He then buried his face in her throbbing cunt.

When his lips closed over her clitoris Jesse could feel the excitement dancing through her. She spread her legs even wider so that he could have access to every delicate part of her. She leaned back as far as she could and her eyes closed to slits so that she could catch Carter's reaction to what took place between them. Just watching how affected he was sent an excited flame dancing through her body at an alarming rate. She could feel the juice flowing from her and filling Jake's mouth positioned so that none of the precious fluid escaped.

He began sucking away at her clitoris and Jesse couldn't hold still. Her legs began writhing with the wondrous sensations he created in her. A quiver ran through her entire body over his expert manipulations and she groaned loudly in the quiet room. The moans coming from her were meant to seduce Carter into coming in and joining them. At this point, she knew that Carter could hear every thing that was going on as she watched the tempo of his jacking off increasing. The slurping noise Jake made sucking her pussy filled the quiet in the cabin. She figured this had to definitely be a turn on even more for Carter.

The noisy groans didn't stop Jake as he placed his tongue into her vagina and began running it in and out. It was almost as if he fucked her pussy with his tongue instead of his dick.

Jesse couldn't get enough of his probing tongue and felt an explosion rip through her sending her juices flowing. She could hear him lapping up the come that had escaped her pussy and it was soon coating his mouth.

When he raised his head, he placed his lips across hers and Jesse began licking away the sticky substance that had accumulated. She then ran her tongue into his mouth and he held it inside until he had cleaned every drop off. The scene was so provocative, she was almost certain Carter should be on fire by now.

Jake lowered his head again and began sucking away on her clitoris. The new sensations were sending her on to a rapturous state. When his finger moved to her pussy, he inserted it into the juicy moistness and began thrusting it back and forth to give her the pleasure she sought.

Hearing a noise toward the front of the plane, Jesse's coveted glance saw that Carter was edging his way toward them. She silently wondered what had taken him so long to decide to join them. If it had been her, she would have been there long before now. When Jake heard the sound of someone else in the room, he turned and glanced at his flying partner.

“Who’s flying this plane, Carter?” He asked, pretending to be disgusted because Carter had left his post.

“The plane’s on auto pilot,” Carter mumbled, hardly able to get the words out in his excited state. “Do you care if I watch for a while, or can I join in?” There was a hopeful light dancing in his blue eyes.

“I don’t know,” Jake answered. “It’s up to Jesse. She’s the boss of what’s happening tonight.”

“I’m sure there’s enough pussy to go around for everyone,” she murmured softly, watching as Carter began stripping off his clothing. Instead of placing them neatly on the seat in his eagerness, he threw them haphazardly on the floor.

Jesse got up from the seat and lay down on the carpeted floor. She did her best to try and present a seductive pose. She wanted to make sure both men could see every inch of her. Her gaze lifted to the muscular body of Carter and a thrill of excitement raced through her.

Carter’s eyes were wide as he devoured every inch of her. This had been her plan and it worked. She could hear his shallow breathing fill the compartment in his excited state.

As Jesse glanced up, she noticed that Carter’s dick was ready from jacking off and she felt the need to fill her mouth with it. Carter didn’t look as if he wanted to make the first move, though. She couldn't figure out what was wrong since she had already offered him the invitation.

Jake decided he would get things going again as he bent his head and recaptured her pussy. Carter didn't make a move for several seconds as he continued to watch the foreplay between the other two. Soon Jesse writhed with pleasure and Jake's head was buried into her wet cunt.

"Come here, Carter," she spoke the invitation in a ragged tone. She reached up for his hand and guided his body across her chest. Jesse could feel his balls touching her breasts as they swung in unison caressing her soft skin. Excitement danced through her again.

"What do you want me to do?" Carter asked, still unsure of his part in the threesome. "I'm willing to try anything you want."

"Put your cock in my mouth," Jesse told him, moving her hand to reach for it as she spoke. She grasped it between her fingertips and guided it closer to her mouth. The male scent of Carter filled her nostrils.

It didn't take Carter long to comply. He slipped his long peter into her mouth and propped himself up on his knees so that his weight wouldn't be too heavy on her chest. He began moving back and forth gently at first, but the tempo began picking up. It didn't seem as if he could slow down as he rode faster and faster feeling the intense pleasure she was giving him.

Jesse made sure her teeth were barely grazing his hard shaft and she could see the little extras she tried were doing the trick for Carter. It looked as if his eyes were rolled back in his head as his body rode her fast and furious.

Just when Carter was on the point of coming, Jesse stopped him and used her hands to clasp Jake's head to move him down between her legs. "Carter, I want you to fuck me while Jake is eating me. This way I'll be able to suck Jake off at the same time."

Carter eagerly nodded his head ready to follow through on her suggestion. He got off the top of her and moved to between her legs and Jake climbed on top her body with his face touching her pussy. She could feel Jake's cock brushing against her cheek as he moved.

When Carter slipped his dick inside her, he started fucking her slowly, watching her with a half lidded look. Jake bent his head until capturing her clitoris and began sucking as Carter pumped even harder.

While Jake sucked her off, he moved his mouth an inch and his tongue came in contact with Carter's dick. The other man didn't miss a stroke as he felt Jake's tongue linger again on his hard cock. The more he moved back and forth, the more Jake licked away at the penis filled with Jesse's cunt juice.

As the men took care of her pussy, Jesse took care of Jake's hard dick. She could feel how deeply he jammed it in her throat, but she didn't care. The wanton feeling enveloped her to a new high. She couldn't get enough of either man, loving how they made her feel right then.

Carter unexpectedly pulled his penis from her vagina. He leaned down and joined Jake in eating away at her pussy. Jake took care of the clitoris while Carter ran his tongue inside the warmth of her cavity. Jesse felt an exhilarated sensation swiftly passing through her. The two kept up with the caresses until she felt a climax burst from her and her body shuddered with the enormity of it.

Suddenly, the plane hit an air pocket and they were jostled back and forth. "Oh no!" Carter moaned out loud. "I have to see about the plane."

"Don't stop now, I'll check it for you," Jake volunteered as he moved to climb off Jesse.

Before he gave up his hold on her clitoris, Jake managed to run his tongue in a circular pattern exciting Jesse even more. Jake knew what he was going to do when he got back, but he intended to surprise them both.

When Jake walked toward the cockpit, Carter kept up with his fucking of her pussy. He leaned down and his lips captured the erect nipples on her breasts. He sucked one first and then moved to the opposite one until they stood like two pointed peaks. His mouth then captured her lips and he ran his tongue into the warmth she was offering. Again he offered her some of the pussy juice that remained coated on his lips. As before, Jesse greedily cleaned his mouth with her tongue.

"I feel as if I'm about ready to come," Carter groaned to Jesse. "Your cunt is so good I can't hold out."

"Come whenever you want," she told him huskily.

Carter rammed his hard cock even further inside of her and could feel a raging noise filling his head. The rocking motion continued and Jesse watched his face which was etched with a wanton desire for her. To her, he felt as if he was about to come and when he started to pull back, she stopped him.

Jesse reached up and clasped his hips with her hands. She felt his cock going deep inside her. Suddenly, an explosive climax ripped from Carter and filled her cavity with the thick juice.

"Oh my Lord!" He shouted out, his body shaking with the explosion. He slowly got up and off her. Carter sank onto the carpeted floor right next to her.

Within a few seconds, Jake returned from the cockpit. As he walked, his penis became hard again as he had watched Carter fill his wife's pussy with come. He joined them on the floor and leaned forward toward Jesse. "I have one job to finish before we take a break," Jake told them, moving toward Jesse and taking a position between her legs. "I have to clean you up a little."

When he buried his face into her vagina again, he began lapping up the come Carter had deposited moments ago. Jake ran his tongue inside her cavity and made a slurping sound as he sucked every drop out. As he raised his head, he saw that Carter was hard again from watching what he had just done.

Jesse wrapped her arms around his neck and pulled Jake's lips to hers. Her kiss was deep, tasting what Jake had tasted while eating her. She licked the fluid from her lips and continued to run her tongue into Jake's waiting mouth.

When she finished, Jake sank back onto the carpeting and saw how Carter tried to control his desire. He placed his hand across his swollen dick but this didn't hide what appeared to be his inner feelings.

"Is everyone ready for a break?" Jake asked.

"Just a short one," Jesse told him as she stood. "I'll get you both something to drink while we catch our breath."

She walked to the back of the plane with her breasts bouncing with every step and returned with two soft drinks and a glass of wine for herself. She knew that Carter and Jake probably wanted to drink something stronger, but while flying a plane, soft drinks were all that she could give them.

She sat back down next to the two and lifted the red wine to her lips. So far everything was working out as she had planned. She enjoyed her fantasy to the fullest. Jesse found out that Carter didn't compare in the love department as Jake did. She couldn't say she hadn't enjoyed Carter, but that's where it ended.

They sat together and kept up a steady stream of conversation. Most of the talk was about the airline and what their different routes were. Carter told them a little about his life, which included a wife, and Jesse felt bad that they had lured him into a threesome with them. What surprised Jesse the most was how no one felt embarrassed sitting huddled together without a stitch of clothing on.

Jake was the first to stand up and stretch his arms above his head. Jesse let her gaze follow his actions. He stood poised before them like a Greek God and she felt a rush of love swiftly pass through her.

What happened next surprised both Carter and Jesse. Jake dropped down onto his knees and placed his hands on Carters hips. Jake guided Carter's body with his hands until his penis was level with Jake's mouth. His lips opened and he swallowed Carter's throbbing dick down his throat. He began with rhythmic strokes and Jesse watched in fascination loving the sight. She could feel her pussy becoming wet again and felt the need to join in, but she waited patiently for her turn.

Jake continued to lick the jutting penis much to Carter's pleasure. He started moving his hips locating the deep crevice of Jake's throat. He began plunging his cock inside Jake's mouth and had a look of intense pleasure lining his face.

Carter stopped for a second and invited Jake to lie down near him. Jake climbed on top of Carter and both men's faces were aligned with each others cocks. Jake continued to suck Carter off while Carter was reciprocating Jake.

The more Jesse watched, the more excited she became. She rose and began licking away at their strong bodies making wet passes along their chests, legs and stomachs. She'd finish one and start on the other in the next few seconds.

There would be no stopping Carter now. He couldn't have stopped if he had wanted to. Before he knew what was happening, he pumped away and felt the juice fly from him into Jake's mouth.

Carter watched in fascination how Jake swallowed down his come. When it was time for Jake to come, Carter didn't hesitate in doing the same. Finally, Jake pumped the last of his fluid inside Carter's mouth and dropped away to the carpeted floor. Jake felt a lethargic sensation sweep over him, but he knew now wasn't the time to rest.

He got up and walked up to the cockpit to check the time. When he saw they only had twenty minutes to reach their destination, he walked back and started gathering his clothes.

What surprised him was how Jesse was already dressed as Carter buttoned his shirt in place. Jake figured Jesse had gotten everything out of her system for now. He only hoped at some future date, she didn't want a repeat performance.

"We'd better get up to the cockpit," Jake told Carter, turning to the front of the plane.

"Be right with you," Carter promised as he stuffed his shirt into his pants.

Soon Jesse sat alone again in the back. Her earlier decision about this being the end of her sexual fantasy was reinforced when her gaze traveled to the wide shoulders of her husband sitting up front guiding the plane. This was going to be her little secret, but she also planned not to leave all the work to Jake in keeping their relationship exciting.

Jake had made their sex so exciting today that Jesse felt she didn't want another man after they finished with her mile high fantasy and took up a daily routine again. She wasn't about to tell this to Jake because she knew after this experience, he would never let things get stale between them again.

She made silent plans already to do her part in the sex department once they reached home. A contented sigh escaped her as she dozed off to take a short nap before they landed. Once asleep, Jesse's dreams centered on Jake and for her this was a sure sign that he was the love of her life.
