The Lars alliance is the name of a solar system of the twelve immortals both men and women. So,...it's true that immortals use immortal weapons like swords ,axes ,maces, bows . Back to the point ,...immortals make immortal weapons that can use the elements, there element,..er..you see every immortal can use a element,...some only, some of the immortals can use all of the elements . So, were was I ,...oh ,yes , you think immortals are human ,...hello, wrong the name immortal means , not means, is , the name the of the race, it is called,...” immortals”, okay the real name is call the,[Rase of the Immortals], still is call, “immortals”. So my book begins,...two more minutes,.....still eating my food,...huff,...okay, my book begins now,...still hear,...okay, okay, now.

CHARTER 1

THE     5th   War              Of The     Immortals

As king Drago come back from one of the planet's in the virgo system named Aquakreun. his wife named Shunlale and his son named Asz came out of the might castle., Asz came dashing to his farther, Drago kneel on one leg to huge his son, his wife Shunlale said, “I see your mission was a success”she said in a will please voice.

“ And not only that, but a new more improve sword”.Drago said . As he opened his hand, energy come into the pome of his hand, both colors red and orange colors, finally all of the energy formed The Fire Sword of the garden of Eden.

“FARTHER,” Asz said, in a voice that was happy but also puzzled. “Dad, how, did you complected the fire sword.

“ Will,...it took me a long time.”king Drago said in a clam voice. “Well I had help, some help, so,...don't say I told you so,...Dragononic ,helped.” said Drago. And then Dragononic appeared standing on thin air .

“ Stop, resting time, -Big brother,”Dragononic said in a stale voice of no feeling.

“No, no,...no,...two more hours,”said king Drago, Looking at his wife in a puzzled look.

“I cannot wait,” Dargonic said, in a cold voice of freezing ice.

“So,...Dad are you go to use that knew skill that you taught me,” Asz whisper to his dad in a soft voice.

“What new skill,” said Dargonic, in a new puzzle voice.

“Oh...yes that one,” Drago said.

“Why,...oh, oh, no,” Dragonic said, as he pulled his Ice-10-220mat advanced Ice sword, “Ice Freeze bolt of cold Heat,” Dragonic said, at the last second, he pulling the sword out of thin air.

“Freeze,” said Drago, at that one second in time Dragonic frozen in thin air and the king said. “blimey, you, stupid, air-head.

“Hahha ,aah, stupid,” Asz said laughing, “huff, blimey.

So Shunlale was taking care of her son Asz in the castle and the king and his brother where perfecting out side there fighting skill on gravity bound ,first both brothers balled up there fists and jumped in the air and speeded up there heart rate until there heart stop and then dargo smiled, and as if they were pulling-Gs both brothers where standing and slowly they fell to the ground, the blood vassal in there head were exploding, then they finally fell to the ground, both brothers were still standing both brothers were able to pull-Gs almost seven thousand-Gs, both brothers tried to maintain there our gravity felled around them, Dargo become a gravity immortal three...a Gravity immortal three is a gravity felled of seven thousand-Gs. After Dargo become a gravity immortal three he stood on the ground and he looked more barf more stronger as if the gravity did not hurt him his gravity felled was so heavy the ground could not support him so much so the ground was quacking, Drago jumped into the air pointing at Dargonic saying, “Are you ready,” he said in calm voice.

“YES, brother I am,” said Dargonic, trying to maintain his gravity immortal three felled, breathing hard he almost drop out but he took control and jumped in the air still breathing hard he look at his brother saying, “your going down Dargo,” he said in a calm voice. Asz looked out side the castle window, the castle was not affected by the quacking, Shunlale was making some food for her son and she saw Dargo and his brother perfecting their gravity bound skill she look out side the window the king was about to summon the kcju wave she opened the castle door an ran down the stairs, Dargo put his hands in front of his body his fists opened up he start to say, “ kcju , kcju, kcju ,” he foxiest a fifth of his gravity felled in to the pome of his hands , finally he foxiest all of his gravity felled leveeing him defenseless he foxiest his gravity felled in his finger tip Drago said something you could understand him but his voice was like a quacking seven point seven earthquake, “Go light of the seven stars, “Drago said , releasing a black hole like energy at Dargonic , Dargonic balled his fist up and punch the energy kcju wave but he was not strong enough to stand against the kcju wave, the black hole kcju wave, that is,...cool, so back to the book.

“How, did you do that,” Dargonic said in one mad ass voice, “Brother,...your using demon power,...are you crazy,” Dargonic said, as the brunt marks on is skin healed in one second once the brunt marks on his skin healed, the skin on his arm, the arm that he used to punch the black hole Kcju wave the skin on his arm from a sooth red orange fire coding on his arm then he leafed his hand at his brother the same hand that had the fire coding on it, then he said, “kcj- kcj- kcj- huahhh.” All of the energy in the pome of his hand was releasing a power that was able to confuse his brother, “Ho, my fracken head,” Drago said in one made ass voice, holding onto his head looking so made that a volcano will blow-up.

“So, Drago we are going to the poison Dragon.”Dragonic said in a cold voice.

“Yes, yes, yes,...so do you feel like if some one is watching us.”Drago said in a calm voice. Shunlale came out side to say The Wingkingdom party is going to begin, king Drago looked at Shunle an he said. “Oh, no the party is now.”said Drago.

“Yap,... that’s you,”said Tornado, looking for the food , “SO, your making t-rex leg right ,no I smell food but it is burnt,”said tornado in a quite voice, “Oh, yes, MALLACK stop hiding and help ,” tornado said yelling Mallack’s name.

Mallack , Guardbrack, shadowcurse, Saltwater, liquid the third, The claw, beast killer, The Human salar, The Killer of the Four horse Men’s power[ He’s the master of Death, War, Disease and Pestilence he’s good at what he does ]with Drago’s friends and his wife and his brother the party begins, “Drago what,...did-I-till you about immortal elf ale,...ale I said that right alee,...ill ale,...ale ill-oh who am kidding I’ AM DRUNK AS A IMMORTAL DragoN, I’ am tired,” Tornado said in one heavy drink ass voice not a violent voice but a drunk an confused voice.

“Do I look like Drago to you Guardbrack,”Mallack said.

“No,...but you look Gothic elf,... a scared Gothic elf,”Guardbrack said.

“Hah,...haha he said that you are a “Gothic elf a scared Gothic elf,”said Tornado.

Mallack move his fist as fast as light but tornado closed his eyes an a gust of wind so powerful that the wind become a invisible immortal brick wall, Mallack’s fist just stop whine it hit it, tornado laugh his ass off then Wingkingdom come an so did the dark elf of Jupiter the dark side of the planet, so Drago said, “Your late,”

“One millennium is all almost up are armies will hold of the land of the unholy but you and your armies have to fight too ,”said the dark elf of Jupiter.

“Wha,...your kidding,...I mean we can fight and left twelve thousand tons,...,...but that is not the point, why are you saying this now I mean you, your scary for a elf you know.” said Drago.

“Okay , see they don’t what to help now lets go, now, please can we go now, hello is anyone there, oh why am I saying this,”said the commander looking at the Queen. But the Queen looked at Drago saying, “ are you sure that you want all of this holy land to be destroy by a enemy that knows no mercy, your wife and your son your friends will die by the hands of this enemy, we come here to help you, but if you say no, we will go, if ?”said the Queen. Drago looked at his family and his friends and said, “okay I will.”

“What the fuck did you say.”said the commander.

“Yes,”said Drago.

“Oh, no I say poove to me that you are as strong as you say immortal.”

“Okay.” He toured into a gravity immortal three and jumped up into the air and said, “Is this strong enough , little elf.”said Drago in a sarcastic voice. Then the elf jumped into the air and said, “envoy.” then he begin to move as fast as light trying to punch the king but the king was able to move faster light, then the king move his fist faster then light then punch the fuck out of the elf and the elf fell to the ground as hard as a rock an then the elf got back up the king jumped back down and said, “Event cockroach,”said Drago as he punch the elf in the gut and thrown him in the air an punch him ten times and smash him on the ground an let his foot fall on the elf’s gut and the king said, “saw that.”The elf got back up an said, “Not, bad for a immortal, but you don’t know this attack.”said the elf as he jumped up in the air and said, “thunder lord attack.”said the elf as he went through the crust of the earth and back up and back down getting closer to Drago, Drago looked and said, “come on.” With one word the elf came up moving more faster than Drago and punched him in the gut. Drago hit the tree and there was a force-fell on him it was like a light like shielded was protecting him. Drago got back up and said, “WELL, NOW YOU KNOW,” said Drago in a loud voice with a smile on his face. Drago said, “well, you shit-hole for a elf, try punching me again moving faster than me.” And that is what the elf did but the light felled that was protecting him, for half an hour the elf was trying and in one punch the elf spelled a word that said you asshole, Drago just looked at him and said, “I was born with this felled, just give up, your not going to win, okay,” said the king.

“Okay,” said the elf, “you win, for now.”

“Tomorrow, begins the wars, be ready,” said the queen, “And, don’t be late,” said the queen again. So Drago went to the gym and bunched a stone that weighed twenty thousand tons and he lifted it for seven hours and he stop. Shulale was reading a book on how to kill faster than nano second. Tornado was perfecting his sword art and bunching twenty thousand tons. Tornado was half human and half Jangoins so the Jangoins blood that is in him makes him stronger than a normal human more powerful than a thousand-G forces. Guardbrack was perfecting his fist art which the name of the art is called black art of the lions manes more deadlier than any human’s martial art so strong that you can stop a planet with your hands. Mallack was perfecting his element of the darkness of space his element gives him the ability bend time and space to his own needs of power. And the Human Salar was making the most strongest armor and more powerful, all immortal’s armor is seven inch thick and the armor’s weight is ten tons and the gauntlet’s weight is twenty tons, so back to the point the Human Salar made an armor that was ten times much more thicker and more heavy and more stronger. Liquid the third and The Claw and The Beast Killer were in the library and reading on how to have power. The Claw was read about Dragons and then he look at his fiends and said, “We are, going to win,” said The Claw with a smile on his face.

“Win,” said The Beast Killer, “win,... want.”

“Win, the war man, the war,” said liquid the third.

“Okay, am going to talk to Drago,” said The Claw.

“Right in back of you man,” said Liquid the third.

The Claw ran faster than light and looked in inside the castle and ran to the gym and said, “Drago, man will you will be happy when I say this.” So The Claw said to Drago how they can win against a foe that was more powerful than an immortal, Drago look at him and said, “So we are going to mot. Zion.” Drago and his wife and his fiends went to Zion and they saw billions of Dragons flying, fighting, eating. Dragons talking to Dragons, Dragons helping Dragons, Dragons using elements like, fire, water, wind, earth, thunder, some using all of the elements and Drago said, “Okay, then.”

“Drago you are the first one to have your Dragon,” said the Claw.

“Your kidding,” said the king.

“The Dragon to the north is yours Drago,” said the Claw.

“I don’t see it ,” said the king.

“The one in the sliver, that is fifty feet tall and has a cannon and sharp teeth and seven inch thick claws,” said The Claw.

“Hah, hahahah, haahahah, your kidding,” said the king laughing.

“No, and no immortal body armor,” said The Claw.

“Why,” said the king.

“Because, that is what the book said and it also said that because you have to, so your skin will get use to the Dragon’s abilities of fighting, oh, and your Wingkingdom so it should not be that big of a deal.” said The Claw.

“Okay, okay I will,” said the king, so he went off to the Dragon his fiends where off to side but his wife was right next to him, Drago said to the Dragon, “can you help us,” said Drago.

“Me, help you,” said the Dragon, looking at the king like food, “why,... should I when can eat you immortal.”

“You should not do that man, I mean I’m not food for you, now if you what to fight, then come on.” said Drago. He toured into a gravity immortal three and pick put his wife and jump and landed on his feet next to his fiends and said, “make sure that Dragon doesn’t come near my wife.”

“Okay,... Drago,” said tornado. Drago jump back and Shulale tour a round and kick tornado in the nuts so hard that tornado screamed like a one year old girl and she said, “That’s for saying yes horn-dog.” And walk off and started to cheer for her husband, tornado was on the flood for hours in bad-ass pain screaming and the others looked at him and said, “DAME, WOMAN, YOU KICK THAT HARD.” Guardbrick said in a loud voice.

“So, a fight aye, come on,” said the king.

“You fool,” said the Dragon. And the Dragon ate and soled him hole but Drago used the black hole kuju wave and come out of the Dragons cannon that was on its back and Drago came flying out and hit the flood Drago said, “It is like Jone and the wale.” And that one point in time the Dragon’s hand smash the king but the king stop the Dragon’s hand and pick up the Dragon and smash him up against the maintain the Dragon got back up jumped in the air and late its back face the sun and the shadow of the Dragon was blocking the sun’s light and the Dragon roared in great pain an anger an amusement so loud that the ground was shacking in fear and weakness the Dragon’s chess open up an in one breath comets come falling out of the sky Shunlale come running to her husband but Guardbrick stop her but she fut back and Guardbrick said, “YOU CANNOT STOP THOSE COMETS,” he said in a voice of warring.

“Oh, and you can?” she said.

“Yeah.” he said. And in one breath he become a two billion feet tall and in one breath he had blown away all the comets and in breath he become a seven feet tall immortal and mallack said, “Man, now that was cool,” said Mallack.

“So your fiends saved you.” said the Dragon. “but they won’t save you from this.”

And at that one point in time the Dragon flown out of the atmosphere and the cannon used the power of space and fired a shot that blown into the plant but Drago put his hands up and the shot hit the king and the king said, “freeze.” the shot toured at the Dragon, the Dragon dodge the shot, the shot miss the sun and destroy a black hole. The Dragon come down, Drago called the fire sword of the garden of Eden to his hand and Drago was burnt out and the Dragon saw the sword and said, “Why, didn’t you say so?” the Dragon said, and it smash it’s claw into the ground and a tree come up and the Dragon said, “A gift, to me too you, the tree of power.” And Drago ate of it and the more he ate of it the more power of the Dragon he had and he ate it all and think the Dragon and jump over to his fiends and his wife, but his fiends were afraid of him but his wife was toured on, Drago looked at his wife and fiends and said, “Why are you looking at me like that.” And guardbrick showed him to the water and said, “look at the water,” And he did just that, and he saw himself in the water but his skin was soled steel about seven inch thick he look tens more stronger and barfed up then a Jango in he had spear tips for nails he had three steel horns two on the side one in the front and a sharp jagged blade on his right arm on his right side of his arm and he had Dragon’s wings of power, and he said, “man, I look cool.” said the King. The King and his fiends and his wife talk about how to test the power that he had and they all looked at Guardbrick saying, that the power should be tested to a Jango in’s power and that is what happen. Guardbrick toured into a two billion feet tall and Drago stood strong guardbrick punch the king but the king stop his fist and thrown him in outer space Guardbrick toured to a seven foot immortal and jump back down in the plant saying, to the King that he was tens more POWERFUL then a Jango in then. An The Claw said, something to the King about how they all have to have a Dragon of there our so the King walk to the his fiends saying, on what Dragon to tame, and it was nighttime when they got back to the castle but they all had there Dragons, but there Dragons where out side of the castle sleeping, and they all where asleep but the elf commander come saying, that the wars are in the morning and they have to get a immortal army of ten thousand’s men of valor, and arm them with the strongest armor and immortal weapons of iron fire and weapons of sliver lighting and copper gauntlet that rain fire and holy armor blessed in the Christ’s name. And they went to the wall of Michael a immortal wall that went to Asia all the way to Chine in a strait line seventeen thousand houses tall and seventeen hundred battle towers, and Drago and the Queen where talking about the war plan. and there Dragons where talking about how meany people they can kill and eat at one second in a time line of one minuted and one second and some of there Dragons where flying in the air looking out for any enemies, and Guardbrick and Mallcak where talking about how meany enemies can they kill too. And Saltwater’s Dragon moved faster then light, to attack the enemy at hand saltwater jump over the wall, and her water armies follow her, the human salar follow her and he’s fire armies followed him, as she ran faster then light her armor toured into soled ice so did her double head hammer, she jumped in the air and her ice Dragon’s wings come strait out of her back and she dive down from the earth’s atmosphere, and smash her hammer down on the ground, moving faster then light and the ground shacked like a ten point ten Earthquake, all in her way died a painful death, the human salar use his fire Dragon’s wings to fly all the way out of the earth’s atmosphere into the sun and said, “raining hell.” And moved his fist so fast that the suns fire went into the earth’s atmosphere an the clouds become red in flames and the clouds rained fire on the fire enemy, an he fell from the sun like a comet into the earth’s atmosphere and bold his fist up and punch the ground the ground become molting magma and, the enemy was gone for now. In a immortal war when a immortal destroy the immortal enemy, that immortal clams the land that the enemy died on. So Drago walk in the battle tower to tell the immortal lighting Archers and the immortal fire Archers to fire at will, the elf’s made tree boards, tree boards are boards that put to gather makes a square plat from to put up on the tree, tree boards can be contained to the corners of other plat from so that the elves can go to more then one place to shot at the enemy. Immortals Wingkingdom and Jango in knights guarding the forest the desert the water and the maintains, the hole side of the planet that was holy but the side of the plant that was not holy the side that was not holy but unholy that was the enemy for a unholy king rains in the land, now he has the power to have the land that he Convected in all his life and now the war begins. A army of a trillion unholy immortal knights come out of the unholy land and Drago, the Queen and the elf commander match the armies by a trillion and one giant the war lasted one year immortals holy and unholy died. But a enemy come out of the water six hundred and sixty six immortal giant avatars of torment the avatars stood on the waters like walls on the ground, and one avatar jumped out of the unholy land and said, "You are far, so much impress, but I'm fear lost , this is where I in tome your soul in that weak ass body yours," he said in a loud voice that feared no one. And the avatars walk to the holy armies that where of a trillion, the holy armies attack using weapons of fire, water, earth, lighting, and wind. And Guardbrick and his Dragon attack the avatars with the strongest attacks, but they avatars walk to the wall of Michael and podded the wall, the Archers fired arrows of lighting moving as fast as light. Guardbrick punch the ground and the earth opened up on the avatars and they fell into hell, he closed the ground on them, with his hands. The elves in the north forest where fighting a enemy that match there armies of hundreds, the armies where stacker to the for corners of the forest. Fifty of the immortals come to help. In the forest, elves put up bunkers and fired arrows of fire but a unholy war lord in armor of golden hatred, cut there heads of saying that the forest is mine for the taking, his throne raised up from the ground and he sat on it, and the sky rained lighting on the land. Elves fut with spears of poison and swords of death and arrows of fire, a elfin war lord of the land in armor of valor came to the unholy war lord and said, " let us fight."And they fut for two hours but the too war lords used a holy claymore and a unholy bastard sword that waned fifty hundred tons, the too war lords dead by the blade of there swords and there bodies toured to stone. The war did not stop. One of the elves did not die but he and his two friends ran from the enemy and said, "If... one of us kills ten of them they kill fifty of us. Its not win able, brother." They walk off in the forest and they saw elves heads on stakes, died bodies both elves and unholy knights. One of his friends came to him and said, " Im, going to throw-up." And he ran to the tree and puck for half a hour. The elves heard a noise and they ran to the point where they heard it, they saw a bloodbath, holy killing unholy and unholy killing holy, the ground was covered in orange and red blood. The Claw was there and he saw the elves, and he grad the elf by the armor and pick the elf up in the air and said, "What, on earth do you think your doing, kid ."And he thrown his axe at the enemy in back of them, the elves looked at him and said, "For a big cat you got a bad at tatou to war."The Claw walk over and looked at the bloodbath and said, "GO! Before you die by the hands of the unholy knights, tell Drago, that his friends need some help,"A shadow came over them and attack of lighting come and toured the enemy into vapor. The holy immortals cheered in there win, but the shadow was gone. The Claw come to the elves and said, " The planes of the this side of the forest are dangers for elves as your self, I fear that I will not let you go to this side of the forest my small elves."

"One thing is, I'm not small, I'm five foot seven and I can left five hundred tons, so am petty strong,"said the elf.

"Go, to the north and help your elfin friends in the fight and go into the cave of valor and there you will fined the armor of the elves."he said, in a clam voice of valor.

The unholy king was in his bedroom and seven super sexy hot harlots where next to his bed and asleep, and the unholy king got up and the name on his shirt was Gas-de-ah-go, it means prince of darkness, the unholy king come to the tome of his farther and he put the blood of the mortal and the blood of a planet and the blood of space, he stab the tome and it opened and a black hole was inside the tome and three unholy warriors come out of the tome and the unholy king told them that to attack the holy land. Drago walked to his room and looked in the mirror and his wings where red as blood and it burnt like molten magma, Shunlale walk in and saw that the king was in paid and Drago looked and said. "Looks my soul does like the Dragon's wings." Shunlale walk up and pulled the wings out of his back and put them on the ground and put hawk's water into his back and he healed in second and hawk's wings come out of his back and his soul liked the wings and the pained was gone. A loud voice of evil come out of the land of the unholy saying bor down before me and I live to serve your god. Drago jump over the wall and ran faster then light and in one jump he landed in Gasdeahgo's room and punched him in the face and Shunlale and his friends and the Queen and the commander and all of the holy immortal armies came to fight in the unholy land and Drago punched Gasdeahgo again in the face moving faster then light. And so the fifth war of the immortals beings but the winner is not yet made real yet but the fight of the kings beings in the next story.
